Checklist for Camera Ready Submission

Paper ID : _____

Title of submission : _____

After peer review, required revision and formal acceptance of papers, authors will be asked to prepare the final manuscript in camera-ready format. Authors must then submit the camera-ready version using an editable document, i.e., Microsoft Word or Latex.

- ☐ Modify your manuscript (if necessary) following the reviewer's recommendations.
- ☐ The ICDXA2020 paper template has been used to prepare the manuscript, and all guidelines stipulated in the template have been strictly adhered to.
- ☐ Number the pages consecutively, with the first page containing: Title, Author(s), Affiliation(s), Full address for correspondence, and email address.
- ☐ Provide an abstract of 100 to 200 words. The abstract should not contain any undefined abbreviations or unspecified references.
- ☐ Provide a maximum of 5 keywords or short phrases in alphabetical order, suitable for indexing.
- ☐ Paper is not longer than 6 pages, including all text, figures, and references.
- ☐ Paper size is set to A4.
- ☐ Text is typed in 11-point (pt) font; the preferred typeface is Times New Roman, in a two-column format.
- ☐ Figures and tables are clearly delineated from the main text of the manuscript and clearly identified in the text.
- ☐ Only SI (System International) units and abbreviations are used.
- ☐ Authors are responsible for the accuracy and completeness of their references and for correct text citation. Citations to published work throughout your paper are using the Harvard referencing, i.e. in the main body of your text including references using the surname(s) of the author(s) and year. The list of references must be sorted in alphabetical order (based on Harvard referencing style).
- ☐ Carefully proofread your submission.
